The Limpopo Department of Public Works, Roads and Infrastructure held its Strategic Planning Session which is aimed at helping the department to set its strategic agenda and road map for 2026/2027. The session was held at Waterberg District in BelaBela Local Municipality.

The session was attended by Head of Department, Chief Directors, Union members, RAL, OTP delegates and other departments. The session was focusing on four programs that is Program 1: administration (Corporate Services and Finance Management), Program 2: Infrastructure Operations( Property and Facilities Management, Education Infrastructure, Health Infrastructure , Provincial Departments Infrastructure and District Coordination and department operations) Program 3: EPWP and Program 4: Roads Infrastructure.

The vision and mission of the department was the guiding framework to the strategic planning and all the discussions which were held during this session. MEC Ernest Rachoene addressed the session and highlighted that there is more that still needs to be done by the department in servicing the communities, without the determination and commitment the department will never succeed in their efforts of provision and management of provincial government land buildings.

The department has received an unqualified audit opinion for the 2024/25 financial year which is a good baseline to improve on. The Head of Department Mr. Motlhanke Phukuntsi advised the attendant that targets which they set should be SMART, Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Realistic and Timely as such will help them to avoid unnecessary audit issues.

Mantji Mamabolo

The Limpopo Department of Public Works, Roads and Infrastructure welcomed eighty-one (81) newest group of employees. The ceremony was held at Polokwane marking another big step toward strengthening service delivery across the province.

This is the Department's third intake of new staff this year, following the appointment of 168 permanent employees in April 2025 and 174 in December 2024. These recruits will join teams working in roads, health and education infrastructure, as well as corporate services.

At the welcoming event, MEC expressed his delight that, in just eight (8) months, the Department had successfully employed over 400 people into permanent positions. "Once again, we came together to welcome the 3rd new cohort since the beginning of the 7th administration," said MEC Rachoene.

The ceremony also gave newcomers a chance to learn more about the department's goals, culture, and expectations. As the demand for public infrastructure continues to grow, especially in rural areas, the department is focusing on building a workforce that's skilled, motivated, and ready to deliver.

MY TREE, MY OXYGEN, PLANT YOURS TODAY

Thabelo Mugwedi

South Africa celebrates Arbor week, first week of September (1-7 September) annually, as the department celebrate Arbor month. Department of Public Works, Roads and Infrastructure, Vhembe District celebrated arbor month on the 25th September, aimed at fulfilling the calling by the President of South Africa by planting ten million trees over five years, under the theme "MY TREE, MY OXYGEN, PLANT YOURS."

This initiative was aimed at motivating/ educating employees on the vital role trees contribute to sustaining human lives and the responsibility of taking care of trees for future generations.

For biodiversity and ecosystem resilience the district planted 3 indigenous trees. One (1) was planted by the district director Mr Tshindane Thivhusiwi at the district premises (Minngoni).

⇒ Acacia Karoo (Sweet Thorn) planted by the District Director Mr Tshindane Thivhusiwi. The tree is used for medical treatment such as diarrhea, colds and flu, stomach problems even sexually transmitted infections (STI).

⇒ Podocarpus Falcatus (Yellow Wood) planted by Assistant Director Facilities Ms Hlungwane Sibongile can be used for medical treatment including chest problems

⇒ Ficus Microcorpa planted by Facilities staff

is used for medical treatment and treating liver disease even headaches

Through such engagements horticulture / landscaping section will continue to embrace conservation practices to ensure greener and healthier environment within the District.

Mabosholo Lelope

The Built Environment Climate Change Indaba (BECCI 2025), organised and led by the Council for the Built Environment (CBE) in partnership with the Vhembe District Municipality, was held on the 11–12 September 2025 in Limpopo. The CBE is an entity of the National Department of Public Works and Infrastructure. This strategic annual gathering seeks to interrogate the intersection of climate change and the built environment while mobilising the sector towards resilience, adaptation, and sustainability.

The Indaba serves as a high-level platform bringing together policymakers, professionals, academics, researchers, and civil society to engage in dialogue and co-create actionable solutions. These outcomes are aligned with the National Development Plan (NDP 2030), South Africa's commitments to the G20, and broader global climate imperatives.

Opening discussions, led by Ms. Koketso Maimela, Manager: Strategic Support & Projects at the CBE, explored ways to translate national policy frameworks into municipal action. The dialogue emphasised the need to harmonise land governance with development and climate priorities while ensuring accountability in infrastructure delivery.

Dr. Gift Mphefu, Managing Director of

Office of Med-Tech Engineering, showcased the role of engineering innovation in strengthening community livelihoods through smart power solutions and resilient settlements.

Dr. Khangwelo Musetsho, Council Member at the CBE, highlighted the urgency of rethinking land-use governance for climate resilience, stressing that today's planning decisions will shape tomorrow's sustainability.

One of the panel discussion under the theme "Resilient Economies & Nature-Based Solutions" brought together industry experts who demonstrated how infrastructure can drive local economic growth. The session showcased opportunities in agro-processing, tourism, and small enterprises, while also ensuring that development strengthens connectivity and community livelihoods.

Adding to the momentum, Limpopo MEC for the Department of Public Works, Roads and Infrastructure, Mr. Ernest Rachoene, underscored the urgency of delivering climate-resilient infrastructure during his keynote address. He stressed that every project must not only address immediate community needs but also foster long-term resilience against the impacts of climate change.

The MEC further called for stronger collaboration across government, traditional leaders, professional councils, the private sector, and local communities to collectively tackle climate challenges.

The Built Environment Climate Change Indaba 2025 reinforces the pivotal role of the built environment in addressing climate change. By fostering collaboration, innovation, and sustainable planning, the Indaba positions the sector as a key driver of resilience and inclusive growth for present and future generations.

The Department of Public Works, Roads and Infrastructure with the assistance of the Limpopo division of the South African Police Service's Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation (DPCI), Anti-Corruption Unit and Asset Forfeiture Unit (AFU) of the National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) secured a preservation order from Polokwane High Court on four government properties in Giyani valued at R18.2 million. The properties are Erf 2B, Erf 58B, Erf 64B and Erf 227B in Kremertart Street in Giyani, Mopani District. Unlawful occupation of any government owned property and land remains a thorny issue as it compromise and undermines the economic

"I would like to thank the work that has been done by officials of the department, the law enforcement agencies including the justice cluster that secured this victory for the province, this sends a strong message of zero tolerance to hooliganism and a desire by thugs to hold the province at ransom," said MEC Rachoene stability and social order of any provincial and national department. In response, the LDWPRI initiated the Vhuyisa Thundu ya Muvhuso (loosely translated as bring back government property) operation in order to emphasise lawful reclamation, balanced justice and sustainable management of its immovable assets—one property at a time, one local municipality at a time.

This is a start in the new direction that shows the department's fight to reclaim its assets from unlawful occupants to safeguard the integrity of public resources moreover immovable assets. "The battle is won, but the war continues to safeguard government properties and ensure rule of law prevails," said MEC Ernest Rachoene.

IN THE SPIRIT OF 67 MINUTES TO GIVE BACK TO THE COMMUNITY IN HONOR OF MADIBA

MEC Rachoene leading departmental deployees at Maokeng Primary School in honour of Nelson Mandela.

Mabosholo Lelope

On the 18th July 2025 MEC Ernest Rachoene joined hands with with Modimolle-

Mookgophong Local Mayor and Waterberg District Mayor in commemoration of Nelson Mandela International Day Celebrations at Maokeng Primary School in Modimolle under the Waterberg District . The 2025 Mandela day theme launched by the Nelson Mandela Foundation, is "It's still in our hands to combat poverty and inequity". This theme, derived from Nelson Mandela's own words, serves as a global call to action, encouraging individuals, communities, and organizations to tackle poverty, fight inequality, and build a society based on justice, dignity, and shared humanity.

In the spirit of giving, MEC and Mayors along with delegates from Women in Construction joined together in one spirit to repaint, refurbish structures as well as replacing broken glasses at Maokeng Primary School as a way of ensuring and acknowledging the importance of this day and to encourage communities to start giving back to the schools to restore the dignity of children. The MEC further committed to donating a soccer kit to the pupils. The commemoration of Mandela Day marks an important day to celebrate continuous strive for justice, peace, equity and human rights for all. The 18th of July is declared Mandela day to celebrate his life by giving back to the community in a form of inspiring and uplifting the livelihoods of young people and the elderly.

EXPANDED PUBLIC WORKS PROGRAMME ENGAGEMENT WITH NYS PARTICIPANTS

Sophy Shai

The Department of Public Works, Roads & Infrastructure Head Office, through the Expanded Public Works Programme (EPWP), hosted an engagement session with National Youth Service (NYS) participants: General Admins, at the Sekhukhune District Office.

The session creates a valuable platform for participants to share their experiences, reflect on workplace challenges and engage in meaningful discussions that contribute to personal and professional growth. It also allows participants to gain insights that enhance their skills and prepare them for future opportunities within the world of work.

By providing this space for dialogue and mentorship, the Department continues to demonstrate its commitment to empowering young people and strengthening the role of EPWP in improving lives. The engagement further reinforces the importance of developing skills that support employability, while also addressing workplace needs in the public sector. The Department emphasizes that such initiatives are vital in building confidence, nurturing talent and ensuring that participants can transition successfully into sustainable employment or entrepreneurial ventures beyond the programme.

This engagement is part of ongoing efforts by Public Works, Roads & Infrastructure to put people first by investing in youth development, skills transfer and community upliftment through (EPWP).

PUTTING PEOPLE FIRST: BATHO PELE OUTREACH SERVES PHETWANE COMMUNITY

Sophy Shai

The Batho Pele Outreach Programme visited Phetwane Village in the Ephraime Mogale Local Municipality, Sekhukhune District, on 23 September 2025, under the theme: "Professionalising the Public Service to build trust and restore confidence in government."

The initiative brought together several government departments and entities, including Public Works, Roads & Infrastructure, Health, Social Development, NYDA, SASSA and Eskom, to engage directly with the community.

Officials provided information and guidance on various government services, ensuring that residents had an opportunity to interact with service providers and raise issues affecting them.

A key highlight of the day was Eskom's educational session, which emphasized the dangers of illegal electricity connections and encouraged safe practices within households.

Other departments and entities provided support on health, social services, youth development and infrastructure related matters.

Through this outreach, government reaffirmed its commitment to the Batho Pele principles of accessibility, transparency and responsiveness, ensuring that communities are informed, empowered and supported. The event successfully strengthened the bond between government and the people it serves, leaving the Phetwane community better equipped with knowledge to improve their daily lives.

Department of Public Works, Roads and Infrastructure in partnership with GEMS hosted a successful Health and Wellness Day at the Department on the 26th of September 2025.

The event, held under the theme “Your Health, Your Wealth”, brought together staff from various units for a day focused on physical, mental, and emotional well-being. It forms part of the department’s ongoing efforts to promote a healthy, motivated, and productive workforce.

Employees had access to free health screenings, including blood pressure checks, diabetes testing, BMI assessments, and HIV counselling and testing, conducted by healthcare professionals. Informative talks on nutrition, stress management, and healthy lifestyle habits were also delivered by wellness experts and guest speakers.
